We are excited to continue our collaboration between Music in Lanark and Avondale Radio community radio station. They will be programming features, interviews and previews of our concerts and we will be sharing links to their output via our online and printed brochure and social media pages. We feel that these two charities, both run entirely by volunteers, are a very good fit as they both programme a wide variety of music featuring many different genres and we hope that this partnership will lead to an increased audience for both.

GLENMUIR 1891

CONSCIOUSLY CRAFTED SINCE 1891

GLENMUIR.COM

DEAR MUSIC LOVER,

A very warm welcome to our concerts! We have a wonderful journey ahead, filled with new beginnings, beautiful music and many memorable moments. We are proud to present this season's musical journey, "The World in Sound – Music without Borders," an invitation to travel across continents and cultures through the universal language of music.

After many happy years of hosting our concerts at Christ Church in Lanark, we are delighted to be returning to the Musicians' Room at the New Lanark World Heritage Site. Thanks to the enthusiasm, hard work and commitment of our new committee, this move has been made possible, and we are thrilled to be bringing music back to this fantastic venue.

Our journey begins on Saturday 5 September at 7.00 pm, with a vibrant programme full of Spanish and Latin American flavours—a wonderful way to start our musical adventure together!

Over the coming months, we have five concerts to look forward to, along with two special musical evenings in collaboration with the New Lanark Mill Hotel. We hope our programme will offer something for everyone and plenty of opportunities to enjoy beautiful music in great company.

Looking a little further ahead, 2027 marks the 200th anniversary of the death of Ludwig van Beethoven, and we are already planning an exciting finale with Beethoven's magnificent "Emperor" Piano Concerto, on two pianos—a wonderful celebration of one of the greatest composers of all time.

Please take some time to browse through the pages of this brochure and discover more about the concerts and events we have planned, including our special Christmas at the Opera and Valentine's at the Opera evenings.

We warmly invite you to join us for wonderful music, memorable performances and new musical discoveries. We can't wait to share these special occasions with you!

TROPPOS

Troppos is a chamber ensemble where classical tradition meets the energy of dance. Founded by composer and oboist Sergio Vega Domínguez, the ensemble brings together classical music, Spanish and Latin American traditions, improvisation, humour and movement.

With its unusual combination of Violin, Clarinet, Bass Clarinet, Oboe/Cor anglais and Voice/ Percussion, Troppos transforms familiar music through new arrangements, folk traditions, rhythm and improvisation. Mozart can find himself in Cuba, Beethoven can meet salsa, and flamenco and Afro-Cuban rhythms can become the foundation of new chamber works.

The result is a vibrant concert experience that moves between virtuosity, humour, intimacy and the irresistible urge to dance.

Come and experience Troppos live as we open the new 2026-2027 season of Music in Lanark. Join us for an evening of music, movement and unexpected musical encounters — and celebrate the beginning of another exciting season together.

PIANIST GINTARAS JANUŠEVIČIUS

Lithuanian-born pianist and narrator Gintaras Januševičius, now residing in Germany, invites audiences on a captivating journey into the world of The Little Prince by Antoine de Saint-Exupéry, accompanied by 27 exquisite French piano miniatures from the 19th and 20th centuries.

Written and illustrated by French writer and aviator Antoine de Saint-Exupéry, The Little Prince follows a young prince as he travels from planet to planet, meeting a cast of curious and unforgettable characters before reaching Earth.

Beneath its seemingly simple story unfolds a profound reflection on loneliness, friendship, love and loss, with gentle observations on life, adulthood and the complexities of human nature. Blending spoken word with live piano playing, this intimate performance offers a fresh encounter with a timeless classic — a world of wonder, tenderness and quiet wisdom, where each note and each word invites us to see life through new eyes.

PAUL DOCHERTY (VIOLIN) & JIA NING NG (PIANO)

This autumn, we invite you to set sail on a “Musical Voyage on the Danube River,” where music and landscape intertwine along one of Europe’s most enchanting waterways.

Guided by two Glasgow-based musicians, violinist Paul Docherty and pianist Jia Ning Ng, we will explore the rich musical heritage that flourished along the Danube, discovering melodies and stories that have flowed through the heart of Central Europe for centuries. You are warmly invited to hear works by Mozart, Strauss, Brahms and Beethoven — music filled with elegance, passion and the spirit of the cities and landscapes that inspired it.

Come and let the music carry you downstream, from one musical treasure to the next, in an evening of timeless melodies and captivating stories.

PIANISTS CHRISTIAN HENRICHSEN & MELVIN CHAN

The year 2027 marks the 200th anniversary of Ludwig van Beethoven's death. Widely regarded as one of the greatest composers in the history of Western music, Beethoven has often been described as the “composer's composer”—an archetypal figure whose uncompromising creative will and artistic vision have inspired generations of composers.

To close our season, we are preparing an extraordinary evening in collaboration with the University of St Andrews. We warmly invite you to join us for a spectacular programme featuring Beethoven's Emperor Piano Concerto, performed on two pianos, followed by George Gershwin's iconic Rhapsody in Blue.

We are delighted to welcome two exceptional guest pianists, Christian Henrichsen and Melvin Chan, who will join us for what promises to be a memorable celebration of two composers whose music continues to captivate audiences around the world.

Book your tickets in advance and come celebrate with us: 200 Years of Immortal Music.
