MUSIC IN LANARK

We are delighted to present our 2025 - 26 Concert Series. We continue to enjoy the generous hospitality of Canon Drew Sheridan who has provided us with a fantastic venue and home for our magnificent Kawai grand piano.

Music in Lanark exists to bring top quality music and musicians to the town.

It exists for you, the audience, to enjoy first class music right here in our community with thanks to support from a very generous anonymous donor.

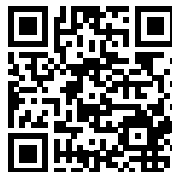

We are also indebted to many local businesses who have been generous in support as Patrons - helping us to maintain the quality of the performers and to keep ticket prices affordable. We hope you support them in return.

TICKETS/PRICES:

Individual ticket price: £10.00

Aged 18 and under: FREE

Tickets available at the door on the night of the concert.

We are excited to continue our collaboration between Music in Lanark and Avondale Radio community radio station. They will be programming features, interviews and previews of our concerts and we will be sharing links to their output via our online and printed brochure and social media pages. We feel that these two charities, both run entirely by volunteers, are a very good fit as they both programme a wide variety of music featuring many different genres and we hope that this partnership will lead to an increased audience for both.

PATRICK HEMMERLÉ

J. S. Bach Goldberg Variations BWV 988

Beethoven Diabelli Variations Op.120

The maverick French pianist is one of the most talented, idealistic and idiosyncratic of musicians. Shunning fame because he prefers the intimacy of small venues, he delights in innovative and stimulating programming. We understand he will become only the second pianist in history to play these two sets of variations at the same concert. In 2013 András Schiff performed them to sell-out crowds at these vast venues: Carnegie Hall, New York; Walt Disney Hall, L.A., and Jordon Hall, Boston. You have the chance to hear them up close and personal in these wonderful acoustics, and on one of the best instruments in the south of Scotland.

LITTLE SPARROW

Little Sparrow is singer/songwriter Katie Ware, a title that came from Elbow front man Guy Garvey affectionately calling her 'Cockney Sparrow' it lead onto her stage name 'Little Sparrow'.

Drawing influences from the likes of Kate Bush, P J Harvey and All About Eve, Little Sparrow's music creates songs that are filled with a blend of styles, woven into the colourful tapestry of her music, often with a mysterious fairy tale quality.

ROSE ROOM

Voted 'Best Band' twice at the Scottish Jazz Awards, Rose Room are Scotland's leading ensemble influenced by the Gypsy Jazz genre. Celebrating their 15th anniversary, they present a programme of 'Hot Club' standards, Gypsy Jazz favourites and self-penned originals with virtuosity, verve and panache recreating the excitement of Rive Gauche Paris.

HYDE CLARINET QUARTET

Formed in 2020, the Hyde Clarinet Quartet is an exciting clarinet group made up of current Royal College of Music students and alumni. They are dedicated to performing new works, as well as exploring the diversity of the clarinet through an array of string quartet and choral repertoire. They won the RCM Ensemble Competition in 2024.

In Lanark they play a programme including music by Beethoven, Shostakovich, Florence Price, Borodin and Marcos Fernandez.
